Back to School Entry Times

Dear Parents,

From the moment the previous academic year came to a close, the work at Bright Nozha Schools has never stopped. Throughout the summer months, our campuses have been alive with construction, renovation, and development projects—each one carefully planned to create a safer, more advanced, and more inspiring learning environment for your children.

To ensure that the academic year begins under the best and safest conditions for our students, and in light of the ongoing final touches of construction work that require just a little more time to be completed to the standards we aspire to, it has been decided—after consultation with the educational administration, schools members, representatives of parents, and specialists—that the official start of on-campus attendance will be on Sunday, September 28.

The first week (starting Sunday 21/9/2025) will instead be dedicated to structured online revisions (depending on a schedule to be announced) through our learning platform (COLNN). This approach ensures that students step into the new academic year with confidence, readiness, and strong academic foundations. This decision has been guided by one clear priority: the safety, well-being, and readiness of our students. Your trust, partnership, and ongoing support continue to be the foundation of our strength, empowering us to deliver an educational experience worthy of your confidence and pride.

We sincerely thank you for your cooperation and unwavering confidence in Bright Nozha Schools—your children’s second home.

Wishing you and our students a safe, successful, and joyful academic year ahead.
